Criminal Action No.
1:20-CR-028

Government's Motion for Detention

The United States of America, by counsel, Byung J. Pak, United States Attorney, and Diane C. Schulman, Assistant United States Attorney for the Northern District of Georgia, moves for detention under 18 U.S.C. §§ 3142(e) and (f).

1. Eligibility of Case

This case is eligible for a detention order because this case involves:

A serious risk that the defendant will flee.

2. Reason for Detention

The Court should detain defendant because there are no conditions of release that will reasonably assure the appearance of the person as required and the safety of any other person and the community.

3. Rebuttable Presumption

The United States will not invoke the rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the appearance of the defendant as required and the safety of the community pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(3).

The United States will not invoke the rebuttable presumption that no condition or combination of conditions will reasonably assure the safety of any other person and the community pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(e)(2).

4. Time for Detention Hearing

The United States requests the Court conduct the detention hearing at initial appearance.

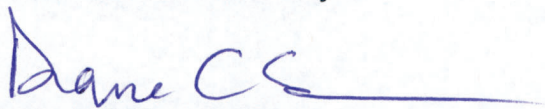

The United States requests leave of Court to supplement this motion with additional grounds or presumptions for detention.
